Beyond this, Advanced d20 Magic provides rules for sustained spells, and also clarifies how the BESM d20 attribute: Dynamic Sorcery; works. In fact, this system completely balances Dynamic Sorcery; and that will be explained later. After the magic attribute is explained, the book then provides how each forms of spells works: from incantations (the most simple), to rituals and magic foci (sing. focus).

d20 Advanced Magic - DriveThruRPG.com

Advanced d20 Magic introduces a new spellcasting system called Dynamic Spellcasting to the d20 System. Dynamic Spellcasting is an alternative system to the standard "Vancian" System that was based on the magic system in Jack Vance's Dying Earth series. Instead of memorizing and preparing spells, a spellcaster can cast any spell he or she knows as a standard action without any special ingredients or other actions.

d20 edition. A version of BESM adapted to the d20 System was published in 2003. Sales were good but the critical response was mixed. New versions of Centauri Knights and Uresia were released under the new version. A later revised edition of this version was published in 2004, which, due to errors in the proofing and printing processes, did not contain the full set of revisions in its final published form.
