Self-righteous, priggish, sanctimonious: people with these types of attributes are typically found to be carrying an attitude of believing that they are better than most, if not all. This is someone with a holier-than-thou attitude. Some may believe this is because a person doesn't know Jesus personally or have a relationship with God, while others might say that some, once they become Christians, begin to cultivate an attitude that others are beneath them, especially those of non-believers.

"Holier-Than-Thou" Origin and Warning Signs from the Bible

Last Modified Date: November 03, 2020. "Holier than thou" is a phrase used to describe someone who acts superior to others or is perceived to act that way. Typically, the phrase refers to an attitude that places an individual above others on a moralistic level. Although no one is perfect, this outlook might lead a person to be quick to point out other people's flaws but rarely notice his or her own.

The legalistic Pharisees of Jesus' day had holier-than-thou attitudes. They considered themselves expert keepers of God's Law and thus closer to God than other people, but Jesus pointed out that they had missed the whole point of the Law. In Matthew 23:23, Jesus said, "Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites!
