Vivien Shotwells Vienna Nocturne is the historical fiction tale of eighteenth-century opera singer Anna Storace. Shotwell explores the private life and lovers that made Annas life much like the dramatic operas in which she sang.

~~Vienna Nocturne by Vivien Shotwell - Goodreads~~

This is an absolutely beautiful romantic story exemplifying the love of music, taking in the nuances of composing, playing, and performing of the opera. Vivien Shotwell writes in a lyrical fashion to match the content, deliciously weaving music into my heart. Knowing nothing of opera before, I am now in love with these characters and their art.

Please enjoy this invitation into the sound world of Vienna Nocturne!. 1. Ch'io mi scordi di te? Mozart wrote this concert aria for Anna Storace's farewell recital, and included for himself an obbligato piano part (featured solo), making it something like a hybrid between an opera aria and a piano concerto. The vocal and piano lines play and communicate in supportive and intertwining dialogue:
